

Guild Program for January 26, 2016

“A Marathon of Sewing” Jean Goldsberry

*"If you always do what you always did, you always get what you always got."
- Henry Ford*

Do you always make the same traditional blocks and only use stippling for your quilting design? Do you avoid curves and sharp angles? If the answer is “yes”, then you have come to the right place to expand your quilting skills.

Jean will jump start the new year with ideas on how to escape this quilting rut. She will inspire us to learn new techniques and to take risks.

So dust off those quilting books, unwrap those rulers, and prepare yourself for new quilting adventures!

This is the 2016 Bits & Pieces Guild Staff Roster. If you are interested in chairing or assisting in a committee, getting involved in any mini group or have a question, please contact any staff member. We all are happy to help you in any way we can.

This roster can also be found on our website under Members Only.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

COK and More: Louis Morris

- I am looking forward to taking over Cover our Kids and am busy selecting dates for sew days in the new year.
- Some new things you will see this year include a "raid the stash" sew day where you bring the pattern and pick out fabric from our ever growing community stash to cut out, take home and put together. We also have an abundance of adorable panels that need to be put together in kits and could be made into a challenge.
- For those that love to appliqué, I have some simple baggy blocks that can be raw edge appliquéd, interfacing provided. Finally, I will have a suggestion box available at meetings where members can give ideas for challenges or new patterns they saw somewhere or simply suggestions for anything COK related. See you in January!

COK Recap Report by Chris Williams:

- Our speaker for the November meeting was Judy Goedeker from St. Louis Crisis Nursery. Judy is a "Best Friend" of the Crisis Nursery and has first hand knowledge of its programs and needs. Several Crisis Nursery locations have been recipients of your quilts. In fact, during the past 2 years, including December, Bits & Pieces Guild has donated 153 quilts to Crisis Nurseries.
- Louise Morris, the new COK Chair, handed out baggie blocks to be completed for January 2016, and has requested volunteers for Baggie Block Coordinators for the coming year.
- In addition, several members took home scrap bags containing fabric to be pressed, cut, and returned in January.
- Ivy Osborne produced a slide show of all the quilts produced by members since January 2014 and while the slide show ran, some COK statistics were announced.
- Up through the November meeting, 218 quilts were made for the year, of which 207 quilts had been donated to various charitable organizations. These organizations include several Crisis Nursery Centers, St. Louis Children's Hospital, Cardinal Glennon Pediatric ICU, Epworth Children & Family Services, St. Louis Transitional Hope House, Jefferson County nursing homes, Quilts of Valor and Honor Flight.
- Through the November meeting:
 - 75 kits were completed
 - 164 quilts or quilt tops were donated to COK by members
 - 3 were given to Honor Flight
 - 5 were given to Quilts of Valor. – 2 completed tops and 3 tops to be quilted.

- 75 plus guild members participated in one way or another in producing all these quilts but some truly outdid themselves with their donation of time and materials:
- Several members donated fabric and a couple need to be noted:
- Tracy Back generously allowed COK to raid her stash after the Garage Sale – what beautiful fabrics! And Peggy Knight's family made sure Peggy would be remembered by Bits & Pieces Guild. They invited COK – at Peggy's instruction – to come get whatever we wanted from Peggy's stash. As if Peggy wasn't prolific enough, her gift will continue to be used for a long time to come.
- Debbie Briscoe was responsible for over 30 kits this year and most of the materials, including fabric for tops, batting, backing and batting came from her own stash.
- Next, Baggie Block coordinators – What a difference you made in the success of COK.
 - In January, Darla Gibson and Bernice Dodge took home the first blocks from the 9-patches that you all had created and then turned those blocks into many quilts and quilt kits.
 - Laurie Schrader was our Coordinator and handed out blocks for January.
 - Lisa Marsden was our February Coordinator.
 - Debbie Briscoe was our March coordinator.
 - April was The Company – Nancy Peters, Kay Merz, Phyllis Nelson, Cindy Holten, Sue Potter, Fran Collins, Debbie Ernst and Nancy Muskopf worked together – a great team
 - In May, Jean Weber put together the baggies and put us all under a deadline (son's wedding) to get them returned – and it worked!
 - Judy Humphreys and Candy Grisham created the June baggies
 - And Bernadette Delannay took care of the July – Flutterby blocks.
 - In all, 41 members took home baggy blocks – a total of 422 baggies, but some went above and beyond: Debbie Syron sewed 60; Tracy Back sewed 54, Susan Calzone sewed 44, Sue Meyer sewed 38 and Merrily Woodford sewed 32.
- Then there are the quilt kits - 39 members either pieced, quilted, or bound a quilt.
- Our quilting queens are: Cindy Holten, Debbie Syron, Judy Vogt, Irene DiRuscio, Nancy and John Rutkowski and Rita Nyhoff.
- Piecing Pros were: Sue Meyer, Debbie Syron and Carol Spindler
- The Binding Queen is definitely Judy Humphrey.
- Other major donations were the 25 quilts from Scraps. Many of you know, Scraps makes quilts for COK and the materials come from their own pockets

— a generous donation. Members of Scraps are: Fran Collins, Eliane Ezra, Cindy Holten, Terry Jacobi, Nancy Muskopf, Phyllis Nelson, Ivy Osborn, Nancy Peters and Sue Potter.

- We had 26 Sew Day volunteers and numerous Scrap bag cutters.
- Cover our Kids & More is a big job, but because of your contributing in some way: piecing, cutting, quilting, binding, donating anonymously, giving a word of encouragement and support, made this a fun, productive, and rewarding task for me.
- Lastly, serving as chair of COK has been a privilege and an honor. Thank you for your support, trust and generosity these past two years. I am truly blessed.
- My thanks to you all.

Challenge Quilt: Challenge Committee

For those who had quilts in the Challenge, please follow these guidelines when submitting your quilt in the quilt show:

Complete Registration forms to turn in by Jan. 26.

1. Fill in the Fanfare of Quilts 2016 Registration Form as completely as possible, including attaching a photo of your Challenge quilt.
2. Check the box named "Number Challenge"
3. Fill in the short "story" for ID label with your inspiration story. What do you want others to know about your quilt and about your inspiration page. Why did you do what you did? Include any special techniques you used if there is space.
4. Sign entry form where needed.

Turning in your Challenge quilts for the quilt show

A quilt drop off person will be contacting you about collecting all of your quilts for the show, including your Challenge quilt. Your inspiration page in its sleeve must be turned in too—just put it in the pillowcase along with your quilt.

Frequently Asked Questions:

Q: Can I still turn in a Challenge quilt for the show even though mine wasn't quite finished for our September Challenge meeting?

A: Yes, yes, yes!

Q: If my Challenge quilt needs special handling (no folding, etc.) when it is turned in for our show, what should I do?

A: Contact Debbie Ernst or another member of our Challenge Committee—they will help you make arrangements for quilt delivery.

Holiday Block Exchange: Lisa Marsden/Laura Khoury/Nancy Turner

- We had a nice collection of 43 fabulous blocks for the block exchange. Thanks to all of those who participated.
- The winners of the blocks were: Jean Goldsberry, Roxann Jasper, Suzanne Mullaney, Merrily Woodford, Trisha Hill. We hope you enjoy your winning blocks...and maybe we'll see what you did with them next year....?

Holiday Party: Jan Oehrle & Debbie Miles

- Holiday Party Recap: And what a great party it was. . . wonderful cookies, good friends, fun games, lots of laughter, great songs, no snow, no ice, no rain. We all had fun. Thank you to all who helped the committee make it a success. We could not have done it without you.
- But, while we will remember all of the above, the best part of the evening was Debbie's wonderful poem (on Page 8). Enjoy reading it while preparing for our Quilt Expo in March.

Library: Kay Merz

- As the hustle and bustle of the holiday season ends and winter settles in, what a great time to look to the new year and ideas for 2016 quilting projects.
- As you think about that new quilting project or maybe an unfinished project for the upcoming quilt show, keep in mind that your Guild Library is a great quilting resource. Please check out the books and dvd's available under the "Member's Only" section of the Guild website under "Library".
- Your Guild Library is located at the back of the meeting room in a cabinet in the side classroom. Stop by the table just outside this room to check out or return library items or if you need assistance in locating an item.
- Your Guild has provided these resources for all members and we encourage you to take advantage of these great tools.

Membership: Lisa Marsden and Laura Khoury

- We had 63 people in attendance at the November meeting. And to date, we have 168 members that have paid their 2015 Membership dues.
- Our November attendance prizes were won by Nancy Muskopf and Rita Nyhoff. Congratulations and we hope you enjoy them!
- It's Membership Renewal time and will take place at the January meeting. Please pay your dues by check or cash.
- The annual fee this year is $25. Guests are always welcome at the meeting for $2.00 ($5.00 when there is a national speaker). Encourage your friends to join us!

FANFARE OF QUILTS 2016

Quilt Show Chair: Nancy Peters

Just a few updates and reminders:

- First: Now that Marsha Bray's husband is retired, he has again volunteered to video tape our show. Thanks, Mac!
- Second: Remember that your Number Challenge inspiration page needs to be turned in with your quilt. However, you may turn it in earlier if that works out better for you.
- Third: If you have an antique quilt for the Bed Turning display, it needs to be turned in to Laurie Schrader or Jeanette Marcus at the January meeting along with your entry form.
- Fourth: Chris Williams will have the volunteer signup sheet at our January meeting. Please sign up for either set up or take down plus at least one work shift during the show.
- Fifth: Remember that our goal has always been to have every member represented at the show., Don't be afraid! This is only a Guild show, not an AQS juried show!
- And last but certainly not least: Start spreading the word about our 10th Fanfare of Quilts show!
- Thanks so very much for all your cooperation!

Raffle Quilt: Ginny Rainey

- "Blue Confetti" Display Locations:
 - No scheduled displays at this time.

Raffle Quilt Ticket Sales: Darla Gibson

- Through November we have sold 4,139 tickets for a total of $3,612. There still is plenty of time before the quilt show to get your tickets in.
- The leaders for the most tickets sold are Chris Wiley and Carol Spindler at 144 tickets. Remember the more you sell, the more chance there is that one of the tickets you sell will be the winner. There is a table runner/wall-hanging that matches the raffle quilt that can be yours if you sell the winning ticket!
- We have about 91 members that have not returned their tickets. If you are one of them, please, please, sell the 24 tickets and return them to us as soon as possible. This is one of our biggest fund raisers to allow us to have great programs such as: COK and More, and our quilt show. This is one of those things that keeps our guild running.

- We appreciate everyone's efforts! Thank you.
Raffle Quilt Committee – Crazy Quilters

Charity Ticket Raffle: Jan Oehrle/Debbie Miles

- The Charity Raffle Hits a Home Run!!! The quilt show Charity Raffle made out like bandits at the November meeting. We received lots of wonderful donations, all of which are appreciated and have helped immensely in moving us toward our goal of eighty five to ninety items. We still have some distance to go but we know the Bits members will come through for the good cause we are supporting.
- As you all probably know, all proceeds from this effort will go to help sponsor Honor Flights for WW II veterans. There are fewer and fewer of these worthy souls left in the world every day. We need to do everything we can to show our appreciation while we still have the opportunity to do so.
- At any rate, Debbie Miles and I will welcome your donations at the December, January, and February meetings. If you are unable to come to one of those meetings and have a donation you wish to make, just call Debbie (314-629-5374) or me (Jan) (314-786-5471) and we will make arrangements to collect your item(s).
- The items that work best for us are table runners, placemats, lap quilts, children's quilts, potholders, bibs, fat quarters, quilting notions, books, patterns, thread, wall hangings, kits. . .the list goes on. If you have a question as to whether an item you wish to donate is an acceptable one, just ask.
- So thanks again to those who have generously donated so far, and thanks in advance to those who have us on their radar for future donations.
- P.S. If any of you have small or medium sized baskets you could donate, they would also be appreciated.

Door Prize List: Wendy Richards

- These donors have generously provided door prizes for our show.
 - CraftOptics — Certificate for a complete set of custom telescopes -- valued at $549.00 (This donation will be in the charity ticket raffle to benefit Honor Flight.) Check them out at <http://craftoptics.com/>

HONOR FLIGHT PARTICIPATE THANKS US

Judy Humphrey received this note from Margie Jacob, a veteran of the World War II Women's Army Corp, and participate of the Honor Flight:

Greetings,

On Nov.11, I was privileged to go on a veteran's Honor Flight. After I received my name tag, I was given one of your quilts. It is so appropriate and came in handy when the wind whipped up in D.C. Thank you so much for supporting veterans. My contribution was minimal compared to others. I was in the now disbanded, Women's Army Corp from 1950 to 1953. I am from Connecticut, and met my husband here after discharge. Here I am 60 years later, where God wants me to be!

New subject: I volunteer at Bethesda Meadows on Old State Rd. Each year in December they look for vendors for their Fabulous Fridays event. We talked about finding someone who could make items other than quilts, lap robes. If your group is interested in making bags for walkers and wheelchairs, clothes protectors etc., I think there could be mutual benefit. The main concern is selling price. Most residents have little spending money.

If you would like more information, please contact Leslie Simon at 636 227 2431 or stop in. Be sure to call first as she works part time. Thanks for hearing me out. Again, thank you for my gift and keep up your good work.

The Night Before Expo
(with apologies to Clement Moore)
By Debbie Miles

'Twas the night before Expo, and all through the hall
There was nary a quilt hung on nary a wall.
The quilters were stunned, they were shaking in fear,
Convinced there would, alas, be no quilt show this year.

All those beautiful things that the members had sewn
Had vanished from sight, had departed, had flown.
And no one could guess where they'd gone to, or how,
But they needed to find them right away and right NOW.

Then out in the street there arouse such a clatter,
Anne Perry ran out to see what was the matter.
Away to the front door she flew like a flash,
(Her personal best in the hundred yard dash).

The moon that shown down on the parking lot snow
Gave the luster of midday to the odd scene below.
For what should be out there disturbing the peace
But a large sewing box pulled by nine flying geese.

The little old soul who was perched on the top
Came down to the ground with a quite dainty hop.
Her coat was of patchwork, gloves covered in thread.
A giant red pincushion sat on her head.

Her earrings were bobbins, and wound 'round her neck
Was a ribbon of tools like a sewing room wreck.
Wherever she stepped, the snow disappeared
And turned into fabric. How awesome! How weird!
She thought for a moment, and nodded her head,
Then looked 'round the gathering crowd and she said,
"I know this is vexing, I know this is scary,
But I'm here to help, for I'm the Quilt Fairy.

"We've no time to waste, no, we've no time to lose,
We must follow a plan, there are search teams to choose.
You, Nancy, you Linda, you Traci and Cindy,
You, Shirley, you Peggy, and you, Chris and Wendy,

"You'll be the team captains. Now divide up the rest
And decide where you're going: east, north, south, or west.
Follow all Drunkard's Paths, go down every Snail's Trail,
Search every Log Cabin, every one without fail.

"To help you along, because time is so short,
I'll give you some help of a magical sort."
She reached in a bag full of trinkets and bling,
And out popped a shining new huge Purple Thing.

A sparkling mist danced when she waved it around,
And all of the teams rose up from the ground.
With squeals of delight, but nary a rumpus,
They flew to all points of the Mariner's Compass.

The magic worked quickly, the magic worked well,
For in no time at all, one search team gave a yell.
The missing quilts lay in a room dark and chilled
In the back of the home of a rival quilt guild.

"Oh, Shame on them! Shame!" said the angry Quilt Fairy.

"They must learn a lesson, right now, without tarry,
And so from now on, for each quilt-thieving
witch,
I'll fix her machine so it won't sew a stitch."

With a flick of her wrist and a nod of her head
The quilters turned 'round, and away they all sped.
With four hundred quilts they returned to the hall
And hung them quite nicely along every wall.

They cheered the Quilt Fairy, they cheered without cease
As she climbed up to her box and revved up her geese.
And she called back to them, as she flew out of sight,
"Happy Expo to all! And to all a Good Night!"
