

Guild Program for May 26, 2015

Guild Garage Sale

Coordinators: Mary Miller and Jean Goldsberry

Because the Fire Code at the Church has a limit of 150 people in the room where we have our guild meeting, we are keeping the “buyers” to our own members plus a friend, and we will not be advertising to other guilds. The parking lot also has limited spaces.

Anne will start the May Guild meeting at 7 pm.

The Garage Sale will be from 7:30 to 8:30 pm.

Show and Tell will begin about 8:15 pm. (If members are still making purchases, they can quietly finalize their sales during Show and Tell.)

Please bring cash and small bills to pay for your purchases. It is up to the “seller” to accept checks.

P R E S I D E N T ' S   M E S S A G E

May! The Merry Month of May.

This month is historically busy with graduations, wedding preparations, and finishing up the end of the school year for both students and teachers.

But most of all, May is the month we celebrate Mother's Day. For all of us who are mothers, may you have a blessed day. For those of you who still have your mothers in your life, enjoy the blessings. Last for those of us who have lost our mothers, may we honor our mother's memory. This is a day to enjoy the blessings of motherhood. I hope each of the mothers and daughters in our guild enjoy the day and remember and honor our mothers and all they did for us.

Madam Spring seems to be behaving, let's hope this continues.

Have a blessed May with your friends and family and enjoy all it has to offer.

Best to all,
Anne Perry, President

COMMITTEE REPORTS

COK and More: Chris Williams

- Debbie Briscoe collected the baggy blocks from the March meeting and will be assembling them into kits.
- The baggy blocks for April are the Floating Star and are provided by the minigroup – The Company. Thank you, ladies, for being coordinators this month.
- Jean Weber is serving as coordinator for May.
- The Sew Days have been scheduled for the next 3 months to be held at the church, from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm:
  - Tuesday, May 19th
  - Tuesday, June 16th
  - Saturday, July 18th
- I will send out a reminder notice before the sew day.
- We continue to have a plethora of quilts that need quilting. If you are able, please consider quilting one of them.
- Just as a reminder, just because a kit does not have a purple ribbon on it, doesn't mean it cannot be quilted on a domestic machine. I realize that some of the larger quilts are best/easiest quilted on a long arm. However, we need your help to get this stash of quilts completed so that they can be distributed.
- Speaking of which, at April meeting we received 17 completed quilts – 3 from COK kits and 14 from individual donations.
- During April distributions of quilts were made to:
  - 10 – Jefferson County nursing homes.
  - 14 – Cardinal Glennon - Karen Turner will delivering those.
  - 13 – Crisis Nursery North.
  - 13 – St. Louis Children's Hospital – the lady there said that several years ago her daughter was in the hospital and she still has a blanket that someone knitted for her. She commented that whether it was a blanket or a quilt, it really means a lot to those who receive them.
- Thank you members, for your generosity.
- If you donate a quilt, fabric or item, please be sure to sign the donation sheet each month. Also, if you are donating to Quilts of Valor, please fill out the forms we have before giving the quilts to Dar Sforza.
- Looking forward to the May Sew Day!

The exhibit, which will change each month, includes pieces created by individuals as well as groups. The artists are members of Art Bits, a group formed in 2007 as a forum for exploring the world of fiber and mixed media art.

Don't miss this feast of color and texture!

Salad Days

JUNE 23

Draw a huge colorful flower on your calendar around June 23, if you have not already done so! That's the evening of our Salad Supper, and we have some fun plans to celebrate summer!

Because we are thinking "salads" and "summer," we are encouraging you to bring Show and Tell items that reflect the season: brightly colored table toppers, placemats, table runners, quilts that you'd use for a picnic if you could wind your mind around the idea of putting one of your creations on grass, quilts with fruits, vegetables, wines, cheeses, baseball -- you get the idea! And you've still got time to come up with something if you don't already have any of the above!

Remember to bring a WRAPPED item for the White Elephant exchange! Something you're willing to give away to make someone laugh or otherwise brighten another's day. It doesn't have to be quilt-or craft-related or even expensive (although if you're really tired of your great-aunt's emerald ring, just put my initials on the bottom of the box: "DM").

There will be games and prizes, smiles and laughter, and yummed tummies. Speaking of which, We the Undersigned will provide bread and drinks, and You the Reader are asked to provide the remainder as follows:

Last name beginning with A-Q: Salads
Last name beginning with R-Z: Desserts

See you there!

Debbie Miles and Jan Oehrle
