

Guild Meeting June 27, 2017

"Tips on Entering a Prize Winning Quilt in a Quilt Show"

By Cindy Neville

Have you ever thought about entering a quilt in a show? It is the ultimate Show and Tell! Cindy Bell Neville has been entering national quilt shows since 2008 and although she has not personally won a ribbon (yet), she was part of a group that made an award-winning quilt. That group is "The Amazing Eight". And it is truly an amazing group. The ladies started quilting together five years ago after meeting online at thequilt-show.com. These quilters are from Mississippi, Ohio, Texas, Tennessee, Iowa, Missouri, and Illinois and the quilt making process traveled through all these states. The group was thrilled to receive an award for "The Amazing Aztec-nicolor Dream Quilt", their third quilt created together. Both of their previous quilts were juried into the Paducah contest in other years, but this is their first award.

Cindy will share why and how she enters quilt shows and what it was like to make a prize-winning quilt. She'll provide many of the "How To's" and disclose how rewarding it is to share your creations with the quilting community.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Have you ever noticed that the height of the laundry pile is directly related to the amount of creative quilting taking place in your home? We fondly refer to this pile as "Mount Nana". This week Mount Nana has become a mountain range. I have been busy working on my wall hanging for the "Get Your Mojo-Show Our Logo" challenge. By the way, it's not too late to make a challenge quilt of your own!

I highly recommend our workshops! I also was able to attend Becky Goldsmith's workshop. Workshops are a great way to get your creative juices flowing. Thank you, Wendy Richards, for organizing this event.

Now that the warm weather is here it is harder to stay inside to quilt. I have started making kits of portable projects so I can sew while I'm on the go.

There are several opportunities to volunteer for the guild this summer. Sign up to sell tickets for the raffle quilt. For more information, refer to the newsletter.

Thank you to all the ladies who have agreed to help with the Salad Supper at our July meeting. Penny Edinger has a fun evening planned for us.

Now I have to get back to quilting. Mount Nana will have to wait.

Best regards,
Peggy Anderson,
President

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Block of the Month: Mary Lou Melkowski

- The winner of the quilt top was Bernice Dodge. Congratulations Bernice!
- To date there have been 428 blocks made. Don't forget the showing of finished tops at the September meeting. We will all be amazed by the beauty, variety and colors used in the tops!
- If you haven't finished your blocks yet keep working on them. Our goal is to have a large display at the 2018 Quilt Show.

COK and More: Louise Morris

- Cover our Kids continues to appreciate the numbers of quilts that are put on our table every month, and this month 20 donated quilts, 1 quilt top, 8 little dresses, and 12 kits were all turned in! In addition, 7 out of 7 quilts to be quilted and 1 out of 3 quilts to be pieced were signed out. We currently have 174 quilts logged in and I am preparing bags for distribution next week.
- I want to thank Chris Williams for the donation of time and materials that went into the over 600 labels she brought in this month. They are much easier to work with than the previous batch. If you were not at the meeting and need some, email me and I will mail them to you.
- We have had our first Quilt Show meeting and are discussing additional ways of promoting the many faces of our COK contributors, including our youngest quilters - so far, we have 4 grandchildren of members who quilt, one boy and three girls, aged 4 to 15! Their pictures and samples of their work will be on display. Looking for other grandkids who quilt to take part in this so please send me names ages and pictures so we can include them.

Library: Kay Merz

- Hopefully you were able to attend our May guild meeting and heard the wonderful presentation and trunk show given by Becky Goldsmith of Piece O' Cake. Her workshops on the following two days were packed with an incredible amount of information and a chance to learn or improve on wool appliqué and needle turned appliqué. Her workshop on color was informative, fun and packed with ideas for using color, demonstrating how easily our designs can be changed. Hopefully, it made those attending more comfortable with their color choices and more creative with their quilting projects.
- Your guild library has a DVD on Becky's method of needle turned appliqué and a couple of her books. The Piece O' Cake website also has some videos on various appliqué techniques which can be used as a follow-up to her classes.
- If you are trying to figure out how to quilt that project you are working on for the 2018 Quilt Show or that project for someone special, you might want to check out our guild library for a new Craftsy DVD, "Help! How Do I Quilt It?" by Angela Walters. This is the same class taught on Craftsy's website. It covers quilting appliqué quilts, quilts with small spaces, paper pieced quilts, sampler quilts, quilts with large spaces and medallion quilts.
- We also received donated books on machine quilting, mini quilts, piecing patterns and Wackeroo Quilts which you might want to check out.
- Your Guild Library is a wonderful resource of books as well as DVDs, and fictional quilt related novels. Whatever your quilting interest, you are encouraged to check out this wonderful resource. Your Guild Library is located at the back of the meeting room in a cabinet in the side classroom. Stop by the table just outside this room to check out or return library items or if you need assistance in locating an item.
- Happy Quilting! May your quilting projects tell the story, express the joy, be made with love, and be cherished when received.

Best Applique award. It will also be a part of the Houston traveling exhibit so it will not be back home until August, 2018. So many quilters will enjoy it and be inspired by Roxann's Applique work as well as her hand dyed fabrics. Let's give a shout out to Roxann! Whoohoo!!
