Guild Meeting December 11, 2018

HO HO HO!

It's time for the Bits Holiday Party!! We will be celebrating Tuesday, December 11, at 7:00 p.m., at the Salem Methodist Church.

Bring an appetizer or cookies to share (finger foods – nothing that requires silverware).

We're pulling out the Quilt-O cards, so bring some buttons or coins for marking those winning numbers.

Bring non-perishable food items for the Church's food bank.

The drawing for the participants of the Holiday block will be held. And we will not have a business meeting or show-and-tell due to time constraints.

Come fellowship with your quilting friends!

MEETING MINUTES

NOVEMBER 27, 2018

Call to Order: Meeting was called to order by President Peggy Anderson at 7:06 PM.

Approval of Minutes: It was moved, seconded, and unanimously approved that the October Minutes be accepted as written.

Treasurer's Report: Cindy Pfothauer, Treasurer, stated that she found her memory stick which had been misplaced in her recent home move. Treasurer's Report will be on the website.

Announcements:

- a. Newsletter deadline is November 30, 2018.
- b. Fun Sew Day: The next Fun Sew Day will be December 1, 2018 at the Firehouse on Henry Avenue; one spot is available. There will be another Fun Sew Day on January 5, 2019. Contact Chris Williams to sign up.

Program: Phyllis Bednarek gave a brief history of the Cover Our Kids (COK) Program. Phyllis also introduced all the past coordinators for COK from the Guild. COK has collected and distributed over 300 quilts just this year. She asked everyone who has contributed hours to COK this year to stand up; she offered a magnetized nametag heart to each of these quilters who have been so giving of their time and talent. Our speaker, Margaret Mahan, was then introduced by Phyllis. Margaret was surprised by how many people attend the Bits 'N' Pieces meetings. Margaret works at Epworth Children and Family Services. She loves to see the beauty, variety, colors, and creativity that goes into all the quilts that come to Epworth for distribution to the children. The quilts are a form of love for the children; they get to keep their quilt wherever they go. Margaret gave an overview of the services and life skills training provided to homeless and displaced children in the St. Louis community; Epworth serves over 11,000 children per year. Epworth is funded through grants, donations, and as a member of the United Way. Margaret then showed a video of the Epworth Program. Epworth takes in the quilts and gives them out at a time that is appropriate based on the need of the child. Every quilt goes to a youth. Some may go out as Christmas gifts. Margaret expressed her appreciation for the quilts from our Guild.

Holiday Block: Cindy Pfothauer advised that the blocks are being gathered again tonight. Blocks can be brought in next month also. There are 4 pieces of fabric left for anyone who wants to do a block for next month.

Thank You: Peggy read a thank-you note from Deb Boschert who was our Program and Workshop instructor for October.

Holiday Party: Joyce Zepp advised that the Christmas Party is at 7 PM on Tuesday, 11 December. Bring an appetizer or dessert and bring buttons for QUILTO. Holiday blocks will be drawn at the Party.

Olympic Quilts: Margaret Gaal stated that 190 quilts have been sent up to Grand Rapids, MI for the abused gymnasts. Margaret expressed appreciation for the donated quilts.

Retreat: Susan Calzone encouraged everyone to sign up for a Retreat in 2019 if you want to attend.

Note: Anne Perry sent a message that she cannot host Nighttime Needlers next year and is asking for someone to take that over from her.

Membership: Kathy Chitwood and Nancy Stratte informed us that there were 65 people in attendance this evening and there were 6 guests. Two attendance prizes were awarded; one prize went to a guest.

UFO: Judy Hoffman asked that UFOs be completed by the end of December. UFO Challenge will begin in January for 2019 so start digging out your dusty old projects that need completion.

Sunshine and Shadow: Kathy Young, who was hospitalized recently expressed her thanks for the many cards she received from members of the Guild.

Show and Tell: Numerous quilts were displayed again this month.

Adjournment: Meeting was adjourned at 8:14 PM by President Peggy Anderson.

Respectfully submitted,
Kay Strebeck, Bits 'N' Pieces Secretary

COMMITTEE REPORTS

COK and MORE: Penny Edinger, Phyllis Benarek, Mary Ann Barr

- Wow! I thought we would have a slow night at the meeting, but you quilters braved the cold and the holiday chores to deliver 31 finished quilts. Then 12 more kits were taken out. Every month we are overwhelmed at the generosity of the Bits n Pieces Guild members. Thank you very much for all your work!
- In November we had 83 quilts to deliver. St. Clair Hospital received 10, Foster & Adoptive Care 19, Epworth Services 18, Cardinal Glennon 18 and Children's Hospital 18. We will deliver 18 of the November quilts to Circle of Concern and the balance to Epworth hopefully before Christmas. Then we start all over again for 2019.
- Speaking of Epworth, Margaret Mahan did a great job explaining all that they do for the at risk children. What a wonderful organization! I think we should feel proud that we are a little part of all the good.

# #

I would like to thank the ladies of Cover Our Kids, Phyllis Bednarek, Mary Ann Barr, and Penny Edinger, for providing us with an enjoyable program this month. The speaker, Margaret Mahan, helped us to understand more about the teenagers with whom she works at Epworth House.

I look forward to seeing all of you at the Holiday Party. Be sure to bring some canned goods to donate to the Circle of Concern.

It has been my privilege to lead this guild for the past two years. The members of our guild are so generous and caring. Thank you for the love and support you have given to me over the past two years.

Have a wonderful holiday season!

Best regards,
Peggy Anderson, President

QUILTS FOR ABUSED GYMNASTS THANKS

I want to thank you for your kindness in contributing to the lap quilt project for the Michigan U and Olympics woman gymnasts program. These 180 woman (age 12 to 40) were victims of sexual abuse and now they live in a world of survival and path of healing. We have sent 90 quilts at this time and my goal is 100 sent by December. Quilts are mailed to Drew, Cooper and Anding law firm in Grand Rapids and distributed. I don't know how many more want a quilt and I have recently inquired so we await a reply from the law firm. It may take time to gather that information.

I am humbled by the great kindness to the women who care to make a quilt for these gymnasts. To have your body, dream of Self and life broken or shattered is a deep sorrow. We have given a quilt to symbolize a hand taken to say: I care, I am sorry, my heart stands with you.

I do not know which quilt is given to any one person in the 180 recipients. I know, anyone you have seen in the news has received a quilt. Our giving is private (no media and privacy for the recipient). Lap size approx 48x54, design and colors to your liking. Place a heart either on front, or back or in the quilting.

- Margaret Gaal
